A despatch from Montreal, dated the 15th August, reports a rich find at sea by the crew of the schooner Fanny Lewis. The schooner arrived at Portland, Maine, and reported that when the ship was off Monhegan something white was seen floating on the top of the water. On a near approuch it was found to be an immense mass of ambergris. This when collected weighed between one and two hundred pounds. Ambergris is used to make the finest perfumes, and the specimen found by the sailors was estimated to be worth about $25,000. This sum the despatch mentioned, was to be divided amongst the owners of the schooner and the crew of the Correspondence from the Peak may be posted in the Letter Boxes up to twelve and four o'clock. Parcels for the Peak may be posted in the General Post Office only up to 11.30 a.m. and 3.30 p.m. There will be no Sunday delivery. Covers containing bank notes, jewellery. &c., should not be posted. To avoid robbery senders of letters are requested to cancel their stamps by writing the word 'stamped' across them.

When Correspondence has been mis-sent or delayed (both of which are liable to happen occasionally) all that the addressee need do is to note on the cover, Sent to --- , or Received at 7 p.m., or as the case may be, and forward in without any other writing whatever, to the Postmaster-General: This should be acted on the first time cause of complaint occurs; it is a mistake to let such matters pass for fear of giving trouble a course which generally gives more trouble in the end

The Postal Guide for 1889, revised to date will be found in the Daily Press Directory, p. 739 of both editions, is the only authorised complete Summary of Postal information published in Hongkong.
